DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. In response to the Amendment received on December 11, 2003, the examiner has carefully considered the amendments. The examiner acknowledges the cancellation of claims 2 and 7.

Response to Arguments

2. Applicant's arguments, see Amendment, filed December 11, 2003, with respect to claims 1-12 have been fully considered and are persuasive. The rejection of claims 1-5 and 7-12 under 35 USC 102(b) as being anticipated by Noritake et al (5,773,126) has been withdrawn.

The rejection of claim 6 under 35 USC 103(a) as being unpatentable over Noritake et al (5,773,126) has been withdrawn. The prior art made of record does not expressly teach and/or fairly suggest a composite film having a transparent substrate, which has stacked on it a hard coat layer and a slip layer, respectfully, wherein said slip layer is constructed such that the content of the slip agent in said slip layer increases from the top surface of said slip layer toward to top of said hardcoat layer. While the prior art made of record teaching a slip layer on top of the hardcoat layer, the recorded art teaches that the slip agents in said slip layer once cured are floated to the top of said slip layer verse increasing from the top of said slip layer to the top of said hard coat.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 1, 3-6 and 8-12 are allowed.

4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The primary reasons for allowance is the characteristics of the slip layer in the instantly claimed composite film. Said properties are such that the slip agent in said slip layer increase from the top to the bottom, such that there is more slip agent content at the interface between the slip layer and the hardcoat layer than there is at the top surface of the slip layer.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
